Please explain your rationale

During this unprecedented and oddly 'suspended' time due to Covid-19, creating and fostering communities is almost a necessity. My project 'Zoom(ing) in on Nostalgia: The Way-Back Weekender' aims to curate activities over the span of a weekend to communally indulge in popular culture that is typically considered nostalgic across (most) cultures. The idea is to seek comfort in our past at a time when everything to do with the future seems uncertain, anxiety-inducing, and out of our control. Collectively immersing ourselves in nostalgic activities and then coming together for an informal discussion online will be a temporary release from the stress around quarantine and might prove to be – at the risk of using this word too liberally – therapeutic.

The rationale, then, is to offer conversations, and feel a sense of community through the conversations.

How will you evaluate whether you have achieved the objectives of the activity? If your proposal is based on an existing U-DOC RLI, how will you build on what you have learned so far to improve your initiative?
